In attendance: Carl Hyden, Sean Luechtefeld, Thomas McCloskey, Jade Olson

I. Report from the Chair (Carl Hyden)
   a. Discussion: Boston in 2017? Will depend on finding a reasonably priced hotel (current bids are about $225)
   b. Good programming this year, but low turnout
   c. Hope we keep doing the ads panel because it draws people and facilitates interaction

II. Report from the Vice Chair (Jade Olson)
   a. General information about Philadelphia
      i. Focus on USC
      ii. Spotlight opportunities
      iii. Interactivity/creativity/audience engagement
      iv. Short course survey: surveymonkey.com/s/9CR8D58
      v. Mobile program test

III. Selection of New Officers
   a. Secretary: Sean Luechtefeld
   b. Vice-Chair: Thomas McCloskey

IV. Brainstorming for 2015 in Philadelphia – “Deliberation”
   a. Debate again—focus on something specifically related to Philadelphia or a related theme that will draw interest. Voting rights?
   b. Debate on a topic relevant to multiple interest groups in order to co-sponsor or make it a Spotlight
   c. Panel on Obama’s “More Perfect Union” speech – potential Spotlight
   d. Anniversaries—Voting Rights Act (1965), end of Civil War (1865)
   e. Monuments/memorials

V. New Business (none)